Understanding Portland State University Graduation 2014 Tickets

What Are Graduation Tickets?

Graduation tickets are official passes that grant admission to the commencement ceremony held at Portland State University. Since the event is typically held in large venues with limited seating capacity, tickets are distributed to ensure fair and organized access for all attendees. These tickets are usually required for guests to enter the ceremony hall, and they help manage crowd control and safety.

Why Were Tickets Necessary for the 2014 Graduation?

In 2014, PSU's graduation ceremony was expected to draw a large crowd, including students, families, friends, and university staff. Guest Admission and Restrictions

While tickets were necessary for most guests, some exceptions or special arrangements might have been available for guests with disabilities or special needs. Additionally, the following policies applied:

- All tickets were non-transferable and had to be presented at the venue entrance.
- Children under a certain age (often 2 or 3 years old) might not have needed a ticket if seated on a parent's lap, but this varied by venue policy.
- Replacements for lost or damaged tickets were generally not issued, so students and guests were advised to keep tickets safe.

Additional Guest Tickets and Overcapacity Solutions

If the demand exceeded the allocated tickets, the university sometimes offered options such as:

- Live streaming of the ceremony for guests without tickets.
- Viewing areas or overflow rooms equipped with screens.
- Special arrangements for family members with disabilities or health considerations.

Students were encouraged to plan early and communicate with the graduation office for any special needs or ticket requests beyond the standard allotment.
